

ELEVEN GOLDEN REASONS WHY ORIENT YESTERDAY CELEBRATED BEING A LITTLE LESS IN THE RED

NOTHING is done by halves down at Lofton Stadium. When Orient are happy there are very, very happy and when they are sad it's awful.

Yesterday was a happy day when, if fans' sh-damn protests and retaliation threats were not quite forgotten, at least all was optimistic. The chairman, Mr Arthur Pope, told the supporters:

"THE club's future is a good deal brighter."

SETTLE money and back Orient would be back in the First Division.

THE present team was the best since those days at the war, and the best since DECK CHAIRMAN in the boat.

manager in Orient's hands.

He might have added that Orient's Golden Girls are the most attractive profit-making scheme in the business. In gold lined suits they sell sixpenny goal-line tickets and have earned £700 to help clear the heavy debts. When not in gold suits they play football and have won all their money.
