

Ray Massey (No. 9) flies to a centre from Mull Slater to head Orient's winner on Saturday.

DAWSON LETS OFF ORIENT

ORIENT 1, BURY 0
MALDEN-FACED Captain with one kicking leglet to be missing. THE one of three few scoring opportunities—Massey's cleverly heading home a centre of goal, being actually by Slater.

In another, Bury occasionally failed to use any of their powerful supply of substitute and fact-actors.

Slater's General and BRITISH of the most noticeable moment at Parkside after the match was an incident after the whistle when Dawson, a start out, hit a post.

MIGHTY MANCINI

ORIENT 1, BURY 0

BURY brought expensive signing Alex Dawson to the Brisbane Road F.A. Cup party on Saturday—but brilliant Terry Mancini wouldn't let him play.

It was Mancini—who, by comparison, must be considered a small change signing—that looked the £25,000 class player as he topped the burly Dawson.

Dawson stood no chance in the air, very little on the ground and was forced deeper and deeper until, long before the end, he was aiming aimlessly in makeshift doing positive little towards backing Bury's Cup effort.

Mancini did not contest his heading ability to clear the corner's attacks. Every time Orient forced a corner he moved upfield and had the Bury defence in a panic.

One header from a Slater flag kick, hit with stunning power down 12 yards looked destined for the back of the net until Mancini scrambled it off the line.

Slipper Brian Wood turned in his usual efficient performance and very little goal by him.

Bury's weakness in the air was exposed by Orient and they were a long way from being a team.

Ray Massey was the only player who was not hit by Slater's flag kick, but he was not a danger to the goal.

SO GIVE ORIENT A CUP MEDAL

IF Birmingham could strike a medal for bravery they would give it to Orient, who suffered another cruel blow after their 3-0 Cup beating.

The damage was done in the first minute, when head-forward Dave Harrison left with a broken right wrist.

It was the first time in the history of the game that a player had a broken wrist in the first minute of a game.

TENSION

The trouble in the East, since the opening minutes, because of the fact that the Orient players were not in the best of form.
